

INTERESTING BITS OF LOCAL NEWS

Midwinter floral exhibition is being held in the Garfield Park conservatory daily from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Mrs. Katherine Bowers, proprietor of alleged disreputable hotel at 853 E. 63rd street, fined $200 and costs. Her case had been continued on her promise to move.

Rose Herringer, chorus girl in Chicago Opera Company ballet, reported missing, has returned to her home. She had been detained at a rehearsal, and her mother became alarmed.

Grace Hanley, 212 Hill street, held to grand jury. Paul Molly, 56, 309 Hill, said woman asked him to help her move a trunk, and the "she put her arms around me and said I was a 'grand old man.' After I left the house I found my pocketbook, containing $45, was gone." The woman denied the charge.

Mrs. Adele Bentine, 18, whose husband had her arrested, alleging that she ran away with another man, charges that she was forced to enter a dive by her husband, Chester Bentine, a fireman. Federal authorities will investigate.

Mrs. Helen Harrison, 642 La Salle ave., charged by the police with conducting a disreputable house, and who has been besieged for three days, yesterday surrendered.

Judge Petit yesterday threw suit between Bernard Neuberger and Jacques Rousse, partners in the "tip trust," out of court. Said tip evil was in same class with hold up and begging.

While on a North State street car, Arthur S. Miller, Winthrop ave., was robbed of purse containing $120.50. Pickpockets.

The Cook county commissioners have ordered padded automobiles to take the place of the old police patrols to carry insane from court to the institutions, with uniformed attendants in charge.

John Burman, North Clark st., was severely cut with a razor by Edward Cunningham during a quarrel over some Christmas gifts. Cunningham arrested.

John Kodlack, North Leavitt st., made an unsuccessful attempt at suicide today at his home, by stabbing himself with a butcher knife, Kodlack told police he had been unable to work steadily. Hospital.

After a quarrel with his wife, Henry Newmann, 72, retired civil engineer, locked himself in the bathroom and turned on the gas. Undertaker.

The Hospital Aid society will give a free entertainment New Year's day for the inmates of the Cook County hospital.

Mrs. Mary Bring, Sholto st., tried to end her life by inhaling illuminating gas through a rubber hose. Despondent on account of illness.

—o—o—
"Did you see any sights on the bowery today?"

"Yes. I hadn't gone a block before I met your wife."